1. On 1 March, [redacted] Ramo-Wooldridge, [redacted] and the undersigned discussed our Project requirement for nine (9) personnel (three (3) per overseas detachment) to be furnished by Ramo-Wooldridge. [redacted] desires that all nine (9) personnel be identified as soon as possible and the personnel for Detachments A and B should be made available immediately and it is expected that the personnel for Detachment C should be made available to the Project by this summer. It was generally agreed that we are looking for a category of Junior Engineer or equivalent; a type who might correspond to the GS-9 Government grade level. [redacted] mentioned that personnel with qualifications desired on the Project do not now exist in the Plant so recruiting will have to be initiated. [redacted] stated that he would picture this man at being in the medium-salary level for a senior grade; with 5 to 20 years experience; and earning $105 to $110 per week as in-the-Plant salary.

2. We reviewed a sterilized version of the Hycon Personal Service Contract with [redacted] and went over the basic provisions; i.e. basic salary, a salary hold-back provision to cover return transportation when the individual is separated for cause, an overseas differential to be computed upon termination of the contract, home and local leave, etc. We also briefly touched on the salary provisions for personnel in training at [redacted] as contrasted with in-Plant or overseas salaries. We expressed the opinion that Ramo-Wooldridge representatives should discuss with [redacted] probably two contracts - one to cover the overseas aspects and the other to cover in-Plant and [redacted] training courses, etc. We further suggested that matters of percentage of burden, G and A, profit, etc. would be a matter to be discussed with [redacted]

3. We requested [redacted] to review the sterilized contract sample which we gave him and to let us have as soon as convenient a proposal from the Company outlining the provisions of a Personal Service Contract which would be signed by Ramo-Wooldridge with their own employees.
